

Blaston Show Society Welcomes New President

February 2010

The Blaston and District Agricultural Show Society is delighted to announce and welcome their new President for this year's Show – Mr Maurice Thompson.

Mr Thompson, who is The High Sheriff of Leicestershire and co-founder of charity Leicestershire First, is already leading the way for the Blaston Show Society. Mr Thompson works in the City of London but is based near Lubenham, in the heart of Leicestershire where his family and other commitments are based.

Oliver Lee, Director of Blaston Show, commented: "We are delighted to be working with Mr Thompson. He has a lot of commitment to charitable organisations and affairs within the county. Maurice has always been committed to rural life and with his experience and passion for community matters he will certainly be a great driving force for another successful Show this year."

Blaston Show is entering its 53rd year and is now accepting entries for all this year's classes. New and existing members are also being encouraged to submit membership applications for 2010.

The Show takes place on Sunday 27th June 2010 and will include gymkhanas, driven ponies, show jumping and an all-new cattle exhibit. Other regular attractions include, trade stands, rural crafts, a licensed bar and food outlets, classic cars, classic and vintage tractors, modern farming display, dog showing, hound showing and sheep and goat showing.

For all information about bookings, membership, sponsorship, trade stands and events at the Show, please visit www.blastonshow.co.uk

Notes to editors:

For further information about Blaston Show or to set up interviews for editorial purposes, please contact:

Emily Hayward, Media coordinator
Email: info@blastonshow.co.uk
Tel: 07801 030443

Website: www.blastonshow.co.uk