

Countdown to the 52nd Blaston Show

22 June 2009

Blaston Show organisers are eagerly counting down to the 52nd annual Show which is being held this Sunday 28th June at Blaston Road, Slawston. Preparations have been ongoing for many weeks to ensure that the temporary Showground is ready. This includes a brand new entrance and an all-new Show layout. Commenting on the changes, Show Director Oliver Lee said "We have all worked tremendously hard this year in making sure everything is just right for the big day. This has involved investment that will ensure the long term success of the Show. The enthusiasm of the new management team is fantastic and appears to be spreading to everyone involved. Everything is in place to make the Show the best ever".

There will be entertainment for the whole family and it is recommended that show goers arrive early to catch the best action in the main ring. Attractions include tug of war, terrier racing, gymkhanas, driven ponies, children's fair rides, trade stands, rural crafts, licensed bar, food outlets, classic and vintage tractors and cars, horse and pony classes, as well as dog, hound, sheep and goat showing.

The two main beneficiaries of this year's Show will be Rainbows Children's Hospice and the Fire Brigade. Donations will also be made to other local charities. For further details, please see the Show website – www.blastonshow.co.uk
